The United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina, hereby submits this Motion to Withdraw its Certification of a Sexually Dangerous Person.

In support of this motion, the government provides the following information. Subsequent to the filing of the Certification of a Sexually Dangerous Person in this case, the U.S. Parole Commission denied Respondent's parole based on his serious risk to re-offend sexually. As a result, Respondent will remain a sentenced inmate until at least April 2012, when he is scheduled for rehearing before the Parole Commission. At an appropriate time, Respondent may be re-evaluated to determine whether he meets federal civil commitment criteria.

The undersigned has contacted Respondent's appointed counsel Jane Pearce with regard to this issue, and she has indicated no opposition to the instant motion.

Based on the above, the Government respectfully moves to withdraw the Certification of a Sexually Dangerous Person in this action. A proposed order is provided herewith.

Respectfully submitted, this 7th day of May 2009.
